

Part III

Work and Employment

This part of the handbook is concerned with the factors affecting employment in organizations. It explores the nature of work, the employment relationship and the important concept of the psychological contract.

Part III contents

14. Work	251
15. The employment relationship	260
16. The psychological contract	276

This page has been left intentionally blank